

Spring 2020, vol. 15 no. 2

Good news!

We hope this finds you and yours well. Despite the world going crazy, we are delighted to share good news with you today.

CPBH co-founder Dr. Karen Somerville has been nominated for a Woman of Inspiration Award, with the Universal Women's Network!

You will find the posting and link below. The idea came from Barbara Captjin, a consumer advocate and long-time CPBH supporter. Thank you, Barbara! We think there is a very good chance that Karen will be a successful candidate.

The path that led Karen to where CPBH is today spans two decades. We have seen her stare down enormous challenges, bring people together to make a stand for what's right, help consumers in trouble and work tirelessly to bring improvements to new home building and warranty regimes that put consumers at risk. Over the years, she has helped thousands of people from coast to coast.

As a result, it's no great leap to say that Karen already is a woman of inspiration. It's high time more people knew about her journey and this award is a great way to contribute to that goal.

You can participate in this initiative by sharing this good news with your networks, through social media, email or the platform of your choice.

Here, you will find information about the Universal Women's Network and their awards program: <https://universalwomensnetwork.com/women-inspiration/nominate-2020/> .

Stay well and safe, and we will have more news for you soon. Thank you for your ongoing support and please share this good news!
